

Turin School on EU Integration, Law and Justice

European funds and conditionality: Institutional and social cohesion implications within the European Union

17-19 May 2023

Turin - Luigi Einaudi University Campus

The Turin Spring School on EU Integration, Law and Justice is organized by the Law Department of the University of Turin.

The present edition of the Turin Spring School focuses on conditionality in EU law and policy. EU financial disbursements to Member States have increasingly come with conditions attached, enhancing the ability of supranational institutions to exert influence in key policy areas. The Spring School aims to offer an in-depth analysis and a critical assessment of this phenomenon, including its implications on the balancing of different objectives of the European integration process.

Who should apply

The Turin Spring School welcomes post-grad students, PhD students, post-doc fellows and young researchers with a strong interest in the evolution of the European integration process. Attendance is limited to a maximum of 35 participants and is free of charge. To apply, please send your CV to turinschooleulaw@gmail.com by 5 March 2023.

Speakers

Antonia Baraggia (University of Milan), Matteo Bonelli (University of Maastricht), Dan Caramidariu (University of Timisoara), Maurizio Ferrera (University of Milan), Michael Ioannidis (MPIL and European Central Bank), Claire Kilpatrick (EUI), Ornella Porchia (University of Turin and Court of Justice of the EU), Harm Schepel (Kent University), Viorica Viță (European Commission).

Organizing Committee: Francesco Costamagna, Alberto Miglio, Stefano Montaldo and Virginia Marinelli.

The Spring School is financed by the Grant for Internationalization 2022 of the University of Turin.

