European Language Council Forum : UNITA talks about intercomprehension in Seville

On December 1-2, 2022, UNITA participated in the Forum "Languages in European University Partnerships: Challenges" organized by the European Language Council (ELC) and hosted by the University of Seville.

During the first session, moderated by José Javier Martos Ramos of the University of Seville, Marcella Costa (UniTo) and Sarah Mantegna (UniTo/USMB) presented UNITA and the actions carried out by Work Package 3 (multilingualism) in the first two years of the project, showing the intercomprehension courses offered to students, teachers and administrative staff and illustrating the results obtained so far.

During other sessions, the Alliance raised questions and issues on the broad topic of language policies.
