UNITA HUBS : ROLE AND RENEWAL

UNITA Hubs, role and renewal of the research and innovation network management

The executive committees are nominated by the Governance Board for a period of one year. It is in this context that in February 2023, the members of the hubs' management changed. Their roles are fundamental, and this renewal will allow continuing the important work already done and inspire a new dynamic.

Indeed, the hub director is at the heart of the research activities. He/she is responsible for leading his/her team and ensuring that deadlines and the content of deliverables are met. He/she also ensures the link between the research activities produced in the field of his/her hub and the coordination committee of WP4 (work package of the UNITA project dedicated to research and innovation activities in the alliance).

Here is the new composition of the UNITA hubs:

Cultural Heritage: Director: Prof. G. Alonge (UNITO, Turin, Italy) and Deputy Director: Prof. L. Roussillon-Constanty (UPPA, France). Circular economy : Director: Prof. G. Mircea (UVT, Timisoara, Romania) and Deputy Director: Prof. J.M. Fraile (UPPA, France). Renewable energies : Director: Prof. B. Stutz and Deputy Director : Prof. A. Cardoso.

Back to the UNITA Library Staff Week March 16-17 at UPPA, Pau.

On March 16 and 17, 2023, Pau's library welcomed a group of 7 staff, composed of librarians from the Alliance, for two days of meeting organized by the Common Documentation Service thanks to the support of UNITA.

The program included an intercomprehension workshop that allowed everyone to overcome linguistic difficulties and to dare to express themselves in their mother tongue, experience sharing sessions and work on current and future perspectives of cooperation between libraries, the presentation of UNITA, a visit of the campus and the library, as well as a facilitation workshop led by educational engineers that allowed to outline the next steps of the collaboration between libraries within UNITA.

First UNITA matching event on education at UniTo

Over 150 professors and vice-rectors from 12 European Universities joined the first UNITA matching event on education in Turin on March 16-17: 2 days to discuss common policies to boost innovative and transnational education and to shape together new international curricula for the students of the Alliance UNITA. With one broader target: sketching scenarios for the implementation of the European joint degree.
