BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMMES IN TORINO

From 27 June to 1 July the first Erasmus+ BIP (Blended Intensive Program), dedicated to "Intercomprehension for Language for Specific Purposes" involved 25 students from France, Portugal, Romania, Spain and Italy. After an online training in the previous weeks, they had the opportunity to consolidate their knowledge by applying techniques and principles of intercomprehension in the LSP (Language for Specific Purposes) contexts. In the second Erasmus+ BIP, “Renewable Energy for the mountain territories”, from 11 to 15 July, the students participated in a training on renewable energies and on social and economic aspects related to the development of energy communities (solar-photovoltaic, hydroelectric, geothermal, wind, biomass). The participants, in addition to lessons and guided tours in the mountains of Piedmont, have developed a project for the application of renewable energy in mountain areas.
