

UNITA BORDERS

UNITA ERASMUS BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME

English

Borders have multiple roles, as their spatial, political and administrative functions also have important cultural, linguistic and social implications

Classroom programme:

- The cultural, geographical and political importance of borders;
- The role of borders in the context of the European Union;
- Borders at times of crisis: from the pandemic to the Russo-Ukrainian War;
- The building of barriers or walls to prevent the free movement of people;
- The elements of social cohesion as well as fracture generated in, and because of, border areas (e.g. immigration).

UNITA
students

JULY 17 - 21, 2023

TURIN, ITALY (@CAMPUS EINAUDI)

Participants profile:

Undergraduates and MA students of all areas of Social Sciences and/or Humanities.

Language requirements:

B2 level of English.

